

Crisis Center for South Suburbia

The Crisis Center for South Suburbia (CCSS) is a non-profit community organization that provides emergency shelter and other essential services for individuals and families victimized by domestic violence and addresses the societal issues that contribute to domestic violence.

CCSS provides a safe haven for victims of domestic violence. For 40 years, CCSS has helped more than 60,000 individuals navigate the cycle of abuse in their lives.

Suburbia and individuals and families victimized by domestic violence.

Fundraising Projects

Funds raised through the Auxiliary have made it possible to remodel and refurbish the shelter's bathrooms, bedrooms, and kitchen; purchase new furniture for the family lounge; provide educational scholarships and transportation; offer holiday meals for residents and more.

Spring Luncheon

This amazing event is held annually in April at Palos Country Club and is attended by more than 300 guests. In addition to lunch and an entertaining program that changes each year, guests help raise funds through raffles and a highly-touted Umbrella Lottery.

Walk Against Domestic Violence

Whether you can walk a mile or three, this family-focused event is for you. Held annually in August at the beautiful Lake Katherine in Palos Heights, hundreds of participants gather for fun, camaraderie and to support the Crisis Center.

Tag Days

Join us as our members and their families gather throughout the community to solicit donations at local businesses and on local intersections. All funds raised directly benefit victims of domestic violence at the Crisis Center for South Suburbia.
